

Media Contact:

Caroline Callaway, Bolt Public Relations
(760) 599-4731 or caroline@boltpr.com

Surfside Staffing Provides Medical Care for Rock 'n' Roll Marathon Participants

Therapist Staffing Agency Volunteers Time and Resources for World-Class Running Event

SAN DIEGO – June 3, 2007 – Surfside Staffing, inc., a San Diego-based physical, occupational and speech therapist placement company, joined the approximately 3,000 volunteers at this year's Rock 'n' Roll Marathon event in San Diego. The staffing agency donated time and resources to provide medical attention, including injury prevention and care, for the race's elite runners and this year's winner, Kenyan Daniel Yego.

"Surfside Staffing is committed to making a positive impact on the communities where we live," said Aryn Valji, founder and president, Surfside Staffing, inc. "Whether donating our resources for events such as the Rock 'n' Roll Marathon or donating time to educate our youth on proper stretches and exercises, we recognize the profound importance of giving back."

Surfside Staffing's other recent community involvement activities include raising money for the Breast Cancer 3-day walk and providing an educational workshop for local youth, parents and coaches regarding sports injury prevention and care.

About Surfside Staffing, inc.

Founded in 2005, Surfside Staffing, inc., is a therapist placement company dedicated to providing physical, occupational and speech therapists with job options, flexibility, competitive pay and personal relationships. Surfside Staffing offers independent contractor positions for per diem work, short-term contracts and permanent placement throughout Southern California. For more information about Surfside Staffing, visit the website at www.surfsidestaffing.com or call (619) 890-2703.

Amyr Valji, Daniel Yego, Carol Pentlarge, Jack Pentlarge

#